Groups and Influential People Visited Our Campus

IJC had a variety of guests throughout the year. The speakers included Joe Spear, a reporter on the staff of the internationally syndicated columnist Jack Anderson; Tom Duro, one of the greatest national speakers on the American scene; and Rupert Chapman from the Ole Miss Archaeology Department. Dennis Yost and the Classics IV were in concert on November 30 in the IJC Gym. The Group from Ole Miss entertained in the student center on February 13. Altogether, these visitors gave our students a wide range of entertainment and enlightenment.

Homecoming - 1973

Homecoming 1973 brought the alumni back to IJC. As in days past, there was the traditional tea, parade, game, and dance. Alumni, students, and supporters made a great contribution to make it the best homecoming ever. Yes, Homecoming 1973 was a day to be remembered.

Homecoming Breaks the Routine of Classes

. . . a victory.
. . . a cheering crowd.
. . . a parade.
. . . the alumni.
. . . the alma mater.
. . . a kiss.
. . . a dance.
. . . a corsage.
. . . a weekend never to be FORGOTTEN.

After all the excitement of the day, there still remained the most important event of Homecoming. To climax the day, the IJC Indians brought a victory to us over the East Central Warriors. All the people, all the activities, all of IJC itself were intertwined to make Homecoming 1973 a day to remember.
